

RETIRED

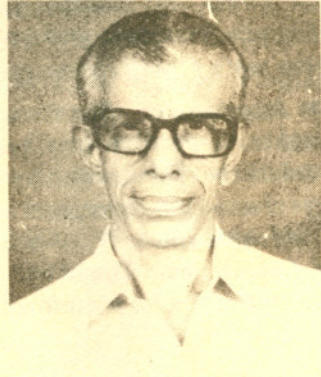

Prof: A. P. ABDURAHIMAN

A teacher par excellence and a competent administrator, He joined the service of the college on 27 June 1962. He became head of the Dept. of Islamic History and first grade professor on 2 June 1980. He retired on 30 June 1990.

Prof: A. P. Abdurahiman has worked as professor-in-charge for some months. He has also been heading the moplath studeis Cum-Research Centre. As Director of the Pre-Examination-Coaching-Centre too he made the impress of his earnestness and made the Centre one of the best in the Country.

Much more than the teacher and administrator in him prof: A. P. wins others with his spontaneous and endearing personal relationship. We wish him well.

Prof: K. M. RAMAKRISHNAN

Prof: K. M. R. is another Name for simplicity unassuming in his dress, bearing and behaviour, he is at the same time the pattern of excellence whether in teaching, sports or gardening.

He joined the service of the college as lecturer in MatheMatics in 1959 and has promoted to proffessorship on feb 1974. He became head of the dept. of Maths. on 1 April 1986 and retired on 31 March 1990.

Prof: Ramakrishnan has been a student as well as a teacher all along. He is as graceful in his Manners as on the Cricket field or tennis ground. Indeed men of his Kind are not many and teachers of his Kind rares Still. We wish him well.

